gave me a sense of responsibility and a chance to work with so many wonderful people. Also, it helped to carry me through the most difficult period of my life. I thank you for choosing me to lead the band not only because of the joy it brought me, but mainly for the happiness it brought my mother in the last months of her life.

I love you so much and will miss you greatly. I am going to come to every game I possibly can. I will never forget you and the band, and what you both have given me. God bless you.

Love always,
Your Golden Girl,

Dear Mr. Kenfro,

I have been meaning to write this for quite some time, and there is no better time than now, the end of my senior year.

I feel that I should thank you for all that you have given me, which is more than you know. Of all the activities I was a part of in high school, band is the most memorable. I used to be scared of you back in my Freshman and Sophomore years; however, as time passed I began to see you for who you are. I just regret that there are all of those people who do not recognize how wonderful a person you are. You are so understanding, forgiving, and willing to give of yourself for your band. I am so glad to have been a part of your band and your dreams.

One of things I will cherish for the rest of my life is having been the Head Drum Major of the Texas City High School Band. The position
